

Schools Celebrate Character First Week and Remember Sept. 11

Campuses throughout the district celebrated Character First Week, Sept. 9-13. Administration, politicians, parents and board members took part in the Good Character programs within each school. During that week, the students planned activities to honor the fallen heroes of the September 11, 2001 tragedy. Many local firefighters and policemen visited the local schools.

CHMS showed their American Pride before the tree planting ceremony honoring the fallen heroes.

CHE learned what it is to have courage from Bandits Hockey players during a Character week.

Trice student handed off the shovel to a Texarkana Arkansas Policeman to help in planting a tree.

Members of Texarkana Arkansas Police Dept. and Fire Dept. talked with students during Kilpatrick's Character First Assembly.

NHJH conducted a moment of silence around the flag pole before the start of school to remember the tragedy that struck our nation on Sept. 11, 2001.

Texarkana Arkansas Police Officers and Firefighters stood behind the tree Domtar and Georgia Pacific donated to Trice Elementary in honor of Sept. 11.

Fairview students enjoyed the Character Assembly held during Character First Kickoff week.

Trice had a Red, White and Blue parade.
